

15th Annual Charter Conference

Date: Thursday, October 6, 2016 | 9:00 am - 2:00 pm

Location: Twenty Toronto Street Conferences and Events
20 Toronto Street, 2nd Floor, Toronto

Program Chairs: Ranjan Agarwal, Bennett Jones LLP
Ewa Krajewska, Borden Ladner Gervais LLP

This program is eligible for up to 4.5 Substantive Hours.
The program contains 0 Professionalism Hours.

Leading constitutional scholars and practitioners will bring you up-to-date on essential developments in Canadian Charter of Rights and Freedoms ("Charter") jurisprudence. Learn about recent Supreme Court of Canada decisions, upcoming cases and developing trends in Charter law. Do not miss our keynote fireside chat on dissent at the Supreme Court of Canada and what it means for the future of Canadian jurisprudence.

This is an essential conference for all practitioners who deals with Charter issues in their practice. We look forward to seeing you there!

8:30 am	Registration and Coffee	11:40 am	Critical Developments in First Nations Issues Karen Drake , Assistant Professor at Lakehead University and Chair of the Thunder Bay Métis Council Katherine Hensel , Hensel Barristers Roger Townshend , Olthuis, Kleer, Townshend LLP Rory Gillis , Doctor of Juridical Science Candidate at University of Toronto Faculty of Law (moderator) In Daniels v. Canada , the Supreme Court of Canada held for the first time that Metis and non-status Indians fall under federal jurisdiction. Join our expert panel to make sense of the wide-ranging Charter implications of this decision, including: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> How does Daniels impact indigenous rights under section 35? In light of Daniels, do federal distinctions between status and non-status Indians breach section 15 equality rights? What future litigation is likely to follow?
9:00 am	Welcome and Opening Remarks	12:40 pm	Lunch (Provided)
9:05 am	The Year in Review: Critical Updates on Significant Charter Litigation Ranjan Agarwal , Bennett Jones LLP Get your need-to-know overview of key constitutional cases from 2015-2016 year.	1:00 pm	Exploring Dissent at the Supreme Court of Canada Professor Benjamin Perrin , Peter A. Allard School of Law, University of British Columbia Professor Sonia Lawrence , Osgoode Hall Law School, York University (interviewer) Are we seeing an increase in strong dissenting voices at the Supreme Court? What are the implications of this apparent divided Court? Join Professor Benjamin Perrin, author of Dissent from Within at the Supreme Court of Canada: 2015 Year in Review , as he unravels this purported trend and why it matters.
9:25 am	Striking the Balance between Competing Rights Nadia Effendi , Borden Ladner Gervais LLP Matthew Horner , Ministry of the Attorney General Jodi Martin , Partner, Paliare Roland LLP Ewa Krajewska , Borden Ladner Gervais LLP (moderator) In an increasingly complex rights-based society, courts must often act as umpires between two or more very compelling rights-claimants, rather than decide whether the government has infringed individual rights. Explore this tension and how it changes the playing field with a focus on recent cases, including Trinity Western University , Nadeau-Dubois and Taylor-Baptiste .	1:50 pm	Questions and Closing Remarks
10:25 am	Networking Break	2:00 pm	Program Concludes
10:40 am	Sexual Assault and the Charter Nader Hasan , Stockwoods LLP Gillian Hnatiw , Lerner LLP Jill Witkin , Chair of the Sexual Violence Advisory Group, Crown Law Office Criminal David Butt , Barrister (moderator) The treatment of sexual assault cases in the criminal justice system is under a microscope, thanks to widespread news coverage of recent high profile events, and heightened public attention. Delve into: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> What recent events and the reaction to them have revealed about the Charter rights of both the accused and the complainants in these difficult cases What, if any, impact the heated public debate around this issue will have How we can support complainants' equality rights while continuing to respect the rights of the accused

PROGRAM REGISTRATION IS ONLINE www.oba.org/pd

Questions? pd@oba.org